LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, AUGUST 15.

STORM -A very severe thunder storm occurred here, yesterday atternoon, between six and seven o'clock. The lightning was vivid and trequent, and the thunder loud. The residence of Mr. Shirly King, on Royal street near Queen, was struck by the lightning, but very little damaged, the paper on the dining room being torn from the wall, and the inmates of the room more or less affected. A lady sitting at a window in the adjoining neighborhood was severely affected by the shock, and a little girl stunned, but soon recovered. The cattle pen at the Orange and Alexandria Railroad Depot was struck, and damaged so as to permit a calf, its only occupant, to escape. A tree near the upper end of Prince street was also struck by the lightning, as was the restaurant of H. Hymes, opposite the Court-House No great damage, however, was inflicted upon the latter. The rain fell in torrents, and flooded the streets at several points, the water running over the side walks at the intersection of Cameron and Henry streets, and invading the cellars of the houses in that vicinity. The rain continued off and on all night. This morning, before day, there was another thunder storm, and the rain continued up to the hour of going to press with the wind from the

THE ASSUMPTION.—The Catholic Festival of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of which to-day is the anniversary, is intended, (as is said by the Washington Republican, from which we copy,) as a memorial of the day on which the mother of the crucified Son and the beloved Apostle St. John remained at the foot of the cross until the redemption of man was accomplished. "While there the Redeemer of the world was pleased to make His mother the mother of the beloved Apostle, who henceforth took her to himself. After the meeting in the upper room, described in the Scriptures, and the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles, she continued to reside with St. John, in whose arms she died. Shortly after her death. the tradition parrates, her soul returning to her body reanimated it, and both soul and blessed spirits, welcomed or assumed into heaven. It is in commemoration of this beatitude of her, whom the Catholic church, after the angel, calls "Blessed among women," that the festival of to-day is celebrated. Catholics hold that the mother of Christ was, by a special and lovely Providence, made the embodiment of every maiden and matronly perfection, the incarnated ideal of Christian woman hood, without spot or blemish. Yesterday, as use of meat being prohibited. The services of to-day are of a festive character, and the church authorities require that, as far as pracclasses of Catholics."

THE APPROACHING REGATTA. - The Grand Potomac Regatta, an advertisement of which appears in another column, to take place on Friday, the 23d instant, promises to be, as the Washington Star says, one of no little enjoyment. So far eleven boats have been entered. Since the enterprise has been determined upon the managers have agreed to admit boats drawing thirty feet keel, and other slight changes in the programme have been made, which will be noticed hereafter. The Wawaset will accompany the contesting crafts on their trip along the route, which will afford a fine opportunity for all to witness the interesting sport. Every preparation will be made to ensure enjoyment, good order, and a spirited race. Four boats, the Flying Cloud, General Robert E. Lee, Jno. S. Mosby and George W. Harrison, have been entered for the race, by Geo. W. Harrison, of this city.

REV. MR. RANDOLPH.—The Baltimore Sun says: "Rev. Mr. A. M. Randolph, of Alexandria, has accepted the invitation of the vestry to the rectorship of Emanuel Church, Baltimore, and will enter upon the duties of his new charge about the 1st of October next." Mr. Randolph has been the rector of Christ Church in this place, for the past year, and has secured not only the affectionate regards of his congregation, but the esteem and respect of the entire community. His talents and worth, and his christian deportment, won for him, at once, the attachment of our citizens, and there is a general regret that he is so soon to leave us. He is to go to a wider field where we are sure he will be welcomed and cherished as he has been amongst our people. He is, comparatively, a young man, and we trust has before him many years of happiness to himself and family, and of usefulness to those who are to be under his

JUDGE H. W. THOMAS, is in Richmond under bail for his appearance in the U.S. Court, to answer an indictment charging him with violating the Civil Rights bill, in not allowing colored testimony. Mr. Neeson will attend as Judge Thomas's counsel. John S. Pendleton, is, also, in Richmond, having been arrested charged with illegally "registering," for which he has been indicted Both the trials, it is said, will take place at this term of the Court. Judge Thomas arrived here this morning by the Aquia Creek steamer, but immediatly started on the Orange train, for his home at Fairfax Court House.

SPEED OF STEAMBOATS. -- The arrest and bailing of Capt. D. J. Hill, of the Aquia Creek steamer Georgiana, in Washington, some days ago, for running that steamer within the harbor of Washington at a greater rate of speed than is allowed by the municipal laws of that city, has already been been noticed in the Gazette. On Tuesday last, the case was decided in a Magistrates' Court in that city by a Justice who held that the law had been violated, and consequently fined the captain $20

DANGEROUS BRIDGE.—The bridge across the Alexandria Canal at the Georgetown Aqueduct is now stated to be in a dangerous condition, the frame on the east side of the bridge having, as some say, settled considerably lower than that on the west side.

CHEAP DWELLINGS, -The Washington Express urges the erection of neat dwelling houses, with good yards, which can be rented at from $2 to $300 per annum.

FIREMEN'S MEETING. -In pursuance of a call of the Chief Engineer of the Alexandria Fire Department, the Presidents of the Fire Companies. Chief Engineer, Fire Wardens, and Mayor Latham, met in the hail of the Hydraulion Fire Company last night.

On motion. Mayor Latham was called to the Chair, and E. S. Leadbeater appointed Secre-

The Chairman stated that the meeting was called to make arrangements for the reception of Mr. Jacob Tripler, the oldest fireman in the United States.

On motion, a Committee, consisting of the Mayor, Chief Engineer, one Fire Warden, and the Presidents of the Fire Companies, together with two members of each company, be appointed to receive Mr. Tripler on his arrival in Washington.

The Chairman appointed Mr. Leadbeater on the part of the Wardens, Messrs. Underwood and Powell on the part of the Friendship, Messrs. Webster and Coleman on the part of the Sun, Messrs. Carne and Simpson on the part of the Hydraulion, and Messrs. Latham and Shinn on the part of the Relief under the foregoing resolution.

On motion, it was resolved that the Committee, upon his arrival, will escort him to the Council Chamber, where the firemen and citizens are requested to pay their respects at five o'elock.

On motion, the Mayor, Chief Engineer, Warden Leadbeater, and the Presidents of the Companies, were appointed a Committee to attend to Mr. Tripler during his stay in Alex-

On motion the Committee appointed as above were requested to meet in the hall of the Hydraulion Company, on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, to make any further arrangements necessary.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

THE FARMINGTON LINE. - The amount freight transported on the little steamer Cynthia, and the proceeds received from her passenger fare, have increased to such an amount as to warrant the employment of a larger boat on the line between this city and Farmington, and arrangements are on foot for the purchase body were, by a great concourse of angels and in Baltimore of a steamer of the required capacity. 'The Cynthia's daily trips to Farmington are of great convenience to the people of Piscataway and the adjoining country, and a boat kept regularly on the line will be well patronized.

ADDRESSES ON EDUCATION.-John M. Langston, a colored lawyer from Oberlin, Ohio; the Vigil or Eve of the testival, was kept by a colored man named Yancy, also from Ohio; our Catholic citizens as a day of strict fast, but and Gen. O. O. Howard, of the Freedmen's one meal being allowed during the day, and the Bureau, are expected to deliver addresses on the subject of education, in the First Colored Baptist Church, on Alfred street, to morrow ticable, it should be kept as a holy day by all evening, at eight o'clock. The citizens generally are invited to attend.

> ACCIDENT.-Yesterday evening, about four o'clock, as some sumae was being hoisted at the sumae mill of Mr. J. E. Magraw, No. 303, King street, one of the bags fell when being landed on the upper floor, and striking a colored man named William, in its descent, dislocated his hip. Dr. Lewis, who was sent for, immediately, soon reduced the luxation.

> SLOOP ROBBED. - A sloop lying on the oyster dock, and loaded with fruit, from down the river, was boarded last night, and robbed of a large number of watermelons. The thieves were a toothsome set of fellows, and ate a portion of their plunder under the shed of Mr. D. R. Wilson's grocery and ship chandlery store.

WASHINGTON AND ALEXANDRIA RAILROAD. It is stated on the authority of an employee of the Washington and Alexandria Railroad that that company has just purchased two light passenger engines, and will, on or about the 15th proximo, commence running hourly trains during the day between this city and Washington.

MEETINGS POSTPONED .- The regular weekly meeting of the Republican club of the Second Ward, to have been held last night, was postponed in consequence of the prevailing bad weather; as was also a proposed meeting in the First Ward for the purpose of organizing a Union League.

FISHING.-A party of gentlemen from this city, who have been fishing for the past day or two at Indian Head, on the Potomac, returned last night, having enjoyed excellent sport, and bringing with them a plentiful supply of large and superior white perch.
